FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

19. Plaintiff EDIXON ALEJANDRO BENITEZ RODRIGUEZ was employed by LATINO BITES 2 LLC as a food preparer, cleaner and delivery person while performing related miscellaneous duties for the Defendants, from in or around August 2020 until in or around February 2022.
20. Plaintiff EDIXON ALEJANDRO BENITEZ RODRIGUEZ regularly worked five (5) days per week during his employment with the Defendants.
21. During Plaintiff's employment with the Defendants, Plaintiff worked every week at 2 locations - at Latino Bites Restaurant ("Restaurant") and Latino Bites Food Truck ("Food Truck"), both owned and operated by the Defendants.
22. From in or around August 2020 until in or around December 2020, Plaintiff worked at the Restaurant approximately 14 hours per day twice per week and approximately 12 hours per day once a week. Simultaneously, Plaintiff also worked at the Food Truck approximately 12 hours per day twice days per week.
23. From in or around January 2021 until in or around December 2021, Plaintiff worked solely at the Restaurant. Plaintiff worked approximately 14 hours per day twice per week and approximately 9 hours per day three days per week.
24. From in or January 2022 until in or around February 2022, Plaintiff worked solely at the Restaurant. Plaintiff worked approximately 13 hours per day once a week; 14 hours per day once a week and 9 hours per day three days per week.

25. Thus, Plaintiff was regularly required to work approximately sixty-four (64) hours or more hours each week from in or around August 2020 until in or around December 2020; approximately fifty-five (55) hours or more hours each week from in or around January 2021 until in or around December 2021 and approximately fifty-four (54) hours per week from in or around January 2022 until in or around February 2022.

27. Plaintiff was compensated by Defendants in cash when he works at the Food Truck and in check when he works at the Restaurant.
28. Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff EDIXON ALEJANDRO BENITEZ RODRIGUEZ the legally prescribed minimum wage for his hours worked from in or around August 2020 until in or around February 2022, a blatant violation of the minimum wage provisions contained in the FLSA and NYLL.
29. Further, although Plaintiff regularly worked approximately sixty-four (64) hours or more hours each week from in or around August 2020 until in or around December 2020; approximately fifty-five (55) hours or more hours each week from in or around January 2021 until in or around December 2021 and approximately fifty-four (54) hours per week from in or around January 2022 until in or around February 2022, the Defendants did not pay Plaintiff at a wage rate of time and a half (1.5) for his hours regularly worked over forty (40) hours in a work week, a blatant violation of the overtime provisions contained in the FLSA and NYLL.
30. Additionally, Plaintiff EDIXON ALEJANDRO BENITEZ RODRIGUEZ worked in excess of ten (10) or more hours per day approximately five (5) days per week from in or around August 2020 until in or around December 2020 and two (2) days per week from in or around January 2021 until in or around February 2022, however, Defendants did not pay Plaintiff an extra hour at the legally prescribed minimum wage for each day worked over ten (10) hours, a blatant violation of the spread of hours provisions contained in the NYLL.

31. Upon information and belief, Defendants willfully failed to post notices of the minimum wage and overtime wage requirements in a conspicuous place at the location of their employment as required by both the NYLL and the FLSA.
32. Upon information and belief, Defendants willfully failed to keep payroll records as required by both NYLL and the FLSA.

There are numerous similarly situated current and former employees of Defendants who have been denied overtime pay and proper minimum wage pay in violation of the FLSA and NYLL, who would benefit from the issuance of a Court-supervised notice of the present lawsuit, and the opportunity to join the present lawsuit. Those similarly situated employees are known to Defendants and are readily identifiable through Defendants' records.
44. The questions of law and fact common to the putative class predominate over any questions affecting only individual members.
45. The claims of Plaintiff are typical of the claims of the whole putative class.
